Meeting your seating needs

HON DAILY

CHAIRS THE WAY YOU WANT THEM

From the day they're hired to the day they retire, individual office workers spend more than 70,000 hours sitting in office chairs. To keep office workers healthy and happy, their chairs need to be comfortable, provide support in all the right places, and stand up to everyday wear and tear. Chairs this hardworking are worth waiting for, but you won't need to wait for long with HON Daily. Express seating orders usually ship in just two business days.
